Tuition Deadline – TODAY!

Welcome and Welcome Back to all of our students!  Please be advised that tuition and fees for Fall 2014 are due by 3pm on the first day of classes, Monday, August 18, 2014.  Please stop by the Office of Fiscal Services at 198 McAllister, Room 111 to make your payment.  If you are waiting for Financial Aid, please have the Financial Aid office fill out a deferment form (available online or at the Financial Aid/Fiscal offices) by 3pm on August 18, 2014.  Thank you!

Add/Drop Deadline – August 22nd, 2014

The Add/Drop period ends at 11:59 pm this Friday August 22.  After this time any withdrawals will require the approval of the Associate Academic Dean.  EXCEPTION: non-GPA courses (courses numbered in the 800s) cannot be dropped during the waitlist fire sale, but other adjustments to your schedule will be allowed on Monday August 25 if you are offered a fire sale seat. Please see http://uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/records/registration/waitlist_procedures/index.php for details.

Disability Resource Program Deadlines

Do you think you might have an undiagnosed disability?  Are you receiving treatment for or in the process of getting diagnosed with Depression, Anxiety, ADHD, a Learning Disability or any other so-called “hidden” or “invisible” disability?  DON’T WAIT TO CONTACT THE DISABILITY RESOURCE PROGRAM (DRP) TO REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS!  By law and to ensure the integrity of the program, registering with DRP to determine eligibility and accommodations must be an interactive, deliberative and collaborative process.  At a minimum, this includes meeting with the Director for a comprehensive eligibility and access planning meeting (a.k.a., an intake meeting), and reviewing relevant documentation.  It is not meant to be an onerous process, but it can take time.  Therefore, students are urged to contact DRP at DRP@uchastings.edu or 415-565-8948 early in the semester to initiate this process.  Students are advised to schedule an intake appointment to occur no later than Thursday, September 18, 2014 for timely consideration of classroom-based accommodation requests for the fall semester.  The deadline for completing your registration with DRP is Friday, October 31, 2014 – but if you haven’t begun the process well in advance of that date, you may be too late to receive accommodations for final exams.  Please refer to the UC Hastings website at http://www.uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/disability-resource-program/index.php for more information.

STUDENT AND OTHER HOURLY EMPLOYEES

New appointment, extension of appointment, and other miscellaneous changes affecting Payroll must be submitted to Human Resources by Monday, August 25, 2014

August timesheets are due in Fiscal Services, Room 111,198 McAllister Street, by 3:00pm Friday, August 29th.

Payday is Friday, September 5, 2014.  Please pick up your paycheck unless you have made other arrangement for mailing.  Fiscal Services is open between 9:00am to 3:00pm.  For your convenience, you may sign up for Payroll direct deposit via At Your Service Online (AYSO) at https://atyourserviceonline.ucop.edu/ayso/.  This is different from financial aid E-Check account.

For any other questions, contact Sandy Lei at leis@uchastins.edu.

If you are a new student to Hastings, please read and find important information here.

UC Hastings makes reasonable accommodations for qualified students with known disabilities. Please contact Lisa Noshay Petro, Director of UC Hastings Disability Resource Program with any questions about the program or accommodations.

All current Hastings students are automatically enrolled in UC SHIP, and billed for the premium. The cost for UC SHIP is $1,729 for the Fall and $2,420 for the Spring semester. If you already have health insurance that will continue through 2014-2015, and you wish to waive UC SHIP, you may apply for the waiver online. Please note that UC Hastings follows the same waiver criteria as all other UC campuses, The University of California has changed the waiver criteria for the 2014-2015 academic year. The deadline for Fall 2014 waivers is September 5, at 11:59pm.

Please go here to see Improvements to 2014-2015 UC SHIP Coverage. You can find the details of your UC SHIP coverage anywhere and anytime at www.ucop.edu/ucship. Please take the time to review the medical coverage, as there have been some changes to the policy.

Anthem Blue Cross and Delta Dental Insurance Cards were mailed to all students. If you waived UC SHIP successfully and you received cards, please destroy them.

Alumni Center Announcements

Pro Bono at UC Hastings

Class of 2015- There is still plenty of time to earn pro bono graduation recognition. Signing up for opportunities throughout the school year will ensure you reach your goal. Watch for announcements and get involved!

Class of 2016 - You are off to a great start, keep the momentum. You may want to seek out new opportunities to build upon the knowledge and skills you built in your summer placements.

Class of 2017- If you did not sign the Pro Bono Pledge at orientation and would like to, visit our requirements page to access a link to the pledge or tracking your pro bono work can also be found on this page. All pro bono materials may be submitted by email to Jayme Jackson at jacksoja@uchastings.edu.

The Public Law and Policy Workgroup
The Public Law and Policy Workgroup (3 units, Thursdays @ 3:30) has an exciting roster of projects this term, including: 1) writing plain language restatements of San Francisco's new and nation-leading lobbyist rules (the group will present its work at a meeting of the SF Ethics Commission in November); 2) briefing the ARB on the Utility Air Regulatory Group decision’s implications for cap-and-trade; 3) a range of public health issues for children, including insurance coverage and policies addressing childhood trauma; 4) a survey of open adoption records laws to support pending legislation; 5) legal and policy options for giving limited English speakers access to the initiative process.

If you’d like to learn about the lawyer’s role in the policy process while contributing to an important issue’s resolution, the Workgroup may be for you. Contact jungd@uchastings.edu or bonorris@uchastings.edu for details.

Current Pro Bono Opportunities

- Legal Advice and Referral Clinic (LARC) is seeking volunteers for Saturday, September 6th, from 9:45-2:30. LARC, is a tremendous opportunity to interact directly with clients, improve your interviewing skills, and work with lawyers across a broad spectrum of practice areas. LARC is held one Saturday a month at UCH and typically serves 100-150 community members with a wide array of legal issues. We have volunteer attorneys who are experts in criminal, immigration, housing, real estate, probate, family, employment, personal injury, consumer, and other areas of law. Student volunteers conduct intake interviews to help determine which lawyer a person needs to consult. Volunteers are asked to commit from 9:45-2:30 on the Saturday they volunteer. Second and third year students who have volunteered previously assist with document production (demand letters, answers, administrative complaints, etc.) under the direction of the attorneys. Training is provided the day of the event. If you are available and willing to commit, please email Jayme Jackson, jacksoja@uchastings.edu, with your cell phone number and indicate your language fluency in addition to English. We always need students who are fluent in Spanish, Mandarin, and Cantonese.

- Tenants Together, California’s organization for Renters’ Rights, seeks law student volunteers to assist in servicing California’s only tenant rights hotline serving all areas of the state. Training for new volunteers will be on Wednesday, September 10th from 1pm-5pm at the Tenants Together office located at 995 Market Street Suite 1202, San Francisco. Volunteers are expected to commit to at least 3 hours per week. The Hotline operates Tuesday through Friday, 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., and Monday evenings from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. No previous tenant rights work necessary. Spanish language skills are highly appreciated. Interested students should send a resume or volunteer form to Aimee Inglis at aimee@tenantstogether.org by September 1st.

- Poverty Simulation - Come experience an innovative and interactive way to consider the challenges faced by clients living in poverty. Spend 3 hours exploring issues and decisions confronting those living in poverty, alongside other law students, lawyers on Saturday, August 23, in the LBM Lounge in 198 McAllister building, from 10 am to 1 pm. Free pizza and soda provided after the simulation. RSVP required: tiela@tielachalmersconsulting.org

- Bay Area Legal Aid, a locally based poverty law firm, is currently looking for individuals who speak another language who are willing to volunteer their time to help with interpretation and translation for BayLegal staff. You would interpret for our cases (housing, domestic violence, immigration and more) in-person or by phone. Interpreters are needed on an on-call basis. ALL languages are needed! Please email ahill@baylegal.org or call (510) 250-5235 for more information.

- Interested in Consumer Rights Advocacy? The Bay Area Legal Aid Debtors Rights Clinics, which are held in Alameda, Contra Costa, and Napa Counties on Fridays and Saturdays will be holding a training for new volunteers on Saturday, September 20, 2014 from 12:00 – 2:30 at their San Francisco office. All law students are welcome. Interested students should RSVP to Claire Johnson Raba at johnson@baylegal.org.
The GI Rights Hotline provides information to service members and veterans on discharge, grievance, and other civil rights issues. Law students are paired with experienced hotline volunteers who provide ongoing training and mentorship. New volunteers must attend two trainings and commit to two hours per week on the hotline for the semester. The next training will be on Friday, September 12, 2014 from 2:00-5:00 at the American Friends Service Committee office at 65 9th Street, SF. Interested students should RSVP for the training to Siri Margerin at sirism@mac.com.

Pro Bono timesheets can be printed from: http://www.uchastings.edu/academics/pro-bono/docs/Pro%20Bono%20TimeSheet%202011.pdf and can be emailed to Jayme Jackson at jacksoja@uchastings.edu or delivered to the Externships and Pro Bono Programs Office on the 3rd floor of the Tower.

Welcome back, 2Ls and 3Ls! 1Ls, we look forward to meeting you in October! Cheers -- Samorn, Oscar, Annabrooke, Anna, Lisa, Sari, Eliza, and Fairuz

Professor Chimene Keitner looking for Research Assistants
Professor Chimene Keitner is looking for one or two RA’s to work on projects relating to the intersection between international law and domestic litigation. If you have a background or interest in international law, historical and/or comparative legal research, and/or fluency in foreign languages (especially French or German) please send a cv and unofficial transcript to keitnerc@uchastings.edu by August 25. Please also indicate your preferred number of hours per week, and whether you are interested in work-study, non-work-study, or academic credit.

Research Assistant - Professor Roger Park
Professor Roger Park needs research assistance for Summer 2014. A typical time commitment would be five to ten hours per week until the end of the summer. One of the projects is an article on empirical testing of lineup procedures, and a background in social science research methods and statistics would be helpful. Please apply by sending a C.V. that includes grade information to parkr@uchastings.edu. He will respond to all applications, so if you don’t receive a reply, please try again.

Professor Morris Ratner is looking for Research Assistants
Professor Morris Ratner is looking for research assistants to help during the fall semester, conducting research on civil procedure, legal profession, and law practice management issues. Applicants should have excellent research skills, and should email a resume to Professor Ratner at ratnerm@uchastings.edu.

Professor Jared Ellias is looking for Research Assistants
I am looking for research assistants to help me with bankruptcy and corporate law related projects. I am looking for people who can work at least 6 hours a week. My research is empirical and students with experience with statistics, computer programming or quantitative research in social sciences are especially encouraged to apply, although no experience is necessary. I am looking for people to help with at least three projects: (a) A project studying the impact of Chapter 11 filings on the value of consumer brands; (b) A project studying forum shopping by large bankrupt companies; and (c) A project studying executive compensation in distressed companies.

Students can either receive credit or hourly payment. If you’re interested, please email elliasjared@uchastings.edu with a resume. Please let me know in the cover email whether one project or another sounds interesting (I promise you, they are more interesting than they sound!) and how much you think you could work. Only 2Ls and 3Ls are eligible to apply.

Professor Leshy is looking for Research Assistants
Professor Leshy is looking to hire a 2L or preferably a 3L to help research a book he is working on. Some of the tasks involve historical research on nineteenth century laws and court cases, and some of it is gathering facts, and assembling facts and preparing bar graphs or other graphical displays, so a capacity to prepare such graphical displays would be most helpful. The amount of time involved is on the order of 10 hours per week, paid at standard rates. Interested students should send an email with resume to leshyi@uchastings.edu.

Professor Knap is looking for Research Assistants
Professor Charles Knapp is seeking a research assistant to assemble material for the next edition of the Knapp / Crystal / Prince Contracts casebook. Interested students should submit resumes and any other relevant personal information by email to Prof. Knapp at knappch@uchastings.edu.

The Center for WorkLife Law is looking for Research Assistants
The Center for WorkLife Law (WLL) is currently seeking a Research Assistant for the 2014-2015 academic year. WLL is a nonprofit research and advocacy group based at Hastings. WLL works on issues of workplace flexibility and employment discrimination with a focus on family responsibilities discrimination (“FRD”). Our research assistants are responsible for screening new cases involving FRD and assisting with the maintenance of our FRD database, as well as other research related duties. The position is open to first- and second- year law students, with a strong preference for students who have taken a course on employment discrimination. Students must be proficient in traditional and electronic forms of legal research; have excellent research and writing skills; and be able to communicate the results of their research clearly both orally and in writing. Hours range from 10-15 per week and most work can be completed remotely. To apply please submit your resume, a cover letter and a list of three references to: Jennifer Lerner, Program Associate at lenerj@uchastings.edu.

Professor Roht-Arriaza is seeking volunteers
Prof. Roht-Arriaza is seeking volunteers for a short-term pro bono project. The Community Land Project is pulling together a database of cases from throughout the world on legal responses to forced relocation and dispossession of communities as a result of land grabs and “development” projects. The Project has too many cases that need to be briefed and key-worded. These are cases from courts around the world dealing with issues of land rights, indigenous rights, human rights and environmental protection. If you have an interest in any of these things, please consider volunteering 5-10 hours to summarize cases according to a specific template. Contact rohtarri@uchastings.edu for more info.

Professor Chen is looking for interns
The Law Office of Shuting Chen seeks part-time (10-15 hours) intern for Fall 2014 who meets the following requirements: (1) fluency in written and spoken Spanish; (2) desire to learn about immigration law, immigrant rights, and/or human rights; and (3) strong written and oral advocacy skills. Interested applicants please send cover letter and resume to ting@chenlegal.com.

Library Circulation Desk student workers needed Fall 2014
The Hastings Library is currently accepting applications from students who are available to work between 8am-6pm, M-F. Shifts are 2.5hrs or 5hrs in duration. Positions are open to all 2Ls and 3Ls. Work-Study is preferred, but not required. The pay rate is $13.06 per hour. Applications are available here, or at the Library Circulation Desk. For additional information, contact Circulation Librarian Sara Doan at doans@uchastings.edu.

College Events Center Student Assistant Needed
The College Events Center (aka the Student Information Center) is looking for a Student Assistant for the Fall 2014 semester. Please contact Lan Tran at tranla@uchastings.edu for more information or to meet in person. Thank you!
Media Services Assistants Needed
Main duties include assisting classroom AV users, minor troubleshooting of audio visual systems, converting media files, copying DVDs, and some general office work. Some experience in a technical/related field (AV, production, IT) is required; experience with audio-visual equipment & multimedia production is helpful. Pay rate is $16.50/hr. Contact Martin Pacholuk, Manager, 415-565-4609 or pacholuk@uchastings.edu.

SPANISH INTERPRETERS NEEDED!
The Civil Justice Clinic is representing Spanish-speaking clients this semester. We need help with interpreting at interviews and other attorney-client interactions, and translating documents from English into Spanish. If you are fluent in Spanish -- please contact Karen Amaya at (415) 557-7887 or email Karen at amayak@uchastings.edu. We will be able to compensate Hastings students at the rates paid by the school for student employees. Open to 1Ls, 2Ls, & 3Ls.

MIEN INTERPRETERS NEEDED!
The Civil Justice Clinic is representing Mien-speaking clients this semester. We need help with interpreting at interviews and other attorney-client interactions, and translating documents from English into Mien. If you are fluent in Mien -- please contact Karen Amaya at (415) 557-7887 or email Karen at amayak@uchastings.edu. SPANISH LANGUAGE INTERPRETERS NEEDED FOR THE REFUGEE & HUMAN RIGHTS CLINIC
The Refugee & Human Rights Clinic is representing clients this semester whose primary language is Spanish. The Clinic needs help with interpretation for client interviews and other attorney-client interactions. Assistance with the translation of documents may also be needed. If you are fluent in Spanish, please email Christine Lin at linc@uchastings.edu and indicate your availability (include evening and weekend hours), level of fluency, how you acquired your language skills, and any prior experience with interpretation or written translation. The Clinic can compensate Hastings students at the rates paid by the school for student employees, or you can choose to count the hours of assistance you provide toward your pro bono goals. Open to 1Ls, 2Ls, 3Ls & LLM students.

Tenderloin After-School Program (TASP) Needs Tutors!
The Tenderloin After-School Program (TASP) is seeking interested, committed, and passionate tutors who are available to work with students ages 5-17 on a weekly basis.

We are looking for volunteers on a weekly basis for Monday-Thursday, 2:30-5:30pm. Volunteers are encouraged to tutor for up to 2 hours one day a week.

TASP recommends that volunteers commit at least 6 months to the program to ensure consistency and genuine relationship building with TASP participants.

If you are interested, please contact Alyssa Santos at (415) 776-8407 or asantos@tndc.org
