DEADLINES

Important DRP Deadlines!

Do you have a documented disability and need accommodations, but didn’t register with the Disability Resource Program (DRP) in the fall? Or, do you think you might have an undiagnosed disability, or are you receiving treatment for or in the process of getting diagnosed with Depression, Anxiety, ADHD, a Learning Disability or any other so-called “hidden” or “invisible” disability? DON’T WAIT TO CONTACT DRP TO REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS! By law and to ensure the integrity of the program, registering with DRP to determine eligibility and accommodations must be an interactive, deliberative and collaborative process. At a minimum, this includes (1) meeting with the Director for a comprehensive eligibility and access planning meeting (a.k.a., an intake meeting), and (2) reviewing relevant documentation. It is not meant to be an onerous process, but IT TAKES TIME. Therefore, students are urged to contact DRP at DRP@uchastings.edu or 415.581.8948. At the very beginning of the semester to initiate this process. Students are advised to schedule an intake appointment to occur no later than FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2015 for timely consideration of classroom-based accommodation requests for the spring semester. The deadline for completing your registration with DRP is TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 2015 (but preferably before Spring Recess) – but if you haven’t begun the process well in advance of that date, you may be too late to receive accommodations for final exams. Please refer to the UC Hastings website at http://www.uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/disability-resource-program/index.php for more information.

The Center for WorkLife Law is looking for Summer Interns!

The Center for WorkLife Law (WLL) is a nonprofit research and advocacy group housed at the University of California, Hastings College of the Law. WLL seeks to jump-start the stalled gender revolution by producing concrete social and institutional change. Our current initiatives include an innovative working group on pregnancy accommodation, research on how gender bias differs by race, a path-breaking study on predictable scheduling of hourly workers, and programs and best practices for advancing women leaders. WLL is also a leader in the field of Family Responsibilities Discrimination (FRD), a form of employment discrimination against workers based on their family caregiving responsibilities.

Summer interns are involved in all facets of the Center’s work, including participating in strategy sessions, researching law and policy, contributing to articles and reports, and attending the Center’s special events. Summer interns typically produce a significant piece of written work over the course of the summer, usually in the form of a legal research memo.

Summer interns receive a $5,000 stipend for ten weeks of full-time work.
For more information about the Center, please visit www.worklife.org.

THE ANONYMOUS PEOPLE is a feature documentary film about the 23.5 million Americans living in long-term recovery from addiction to alcohol and other drugs. Deeply entrenched social stigma and discrimination have kept recovery voices silent and faces hidden for decades. The vacuum created by this silence has been filled by sensational mass media depictions of people in active addiction who continue to perpetuate a lurid public fascination with the dysfunctional side of what is a preventable and treatable health condition. Just like women with breast cancer, or people with HIV/AIDS, courageous addiction recovery advocates are starting to come out of the shadows to tell their true stories.
