>> DEADLINES

DRP Accommodation Deadlines

Do you have a documented disability and need accommodations, but didn't register or complete the registration process with the Disability Resource Program (DRP) in the fall? Or, do you think you might have an undiagnosed disability, or are you receiving treatment for or in the process of getting diagnosed with Depression, Anxiety, ADHD, a Learning Disability or any other so-called "hidden" or "invisible" disability? DON'T WAIT TO CONTACT DRP TO REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS! By law and to ensure the integrity of the program, registering with DRP to determine eligibility and accommodations must be an interactive, deliberative and collaborative process. At a minimum, this includes (1) meeting with the Director for a comprehensive eligibility and access planning meeting (a.k.a., an intake meeting), and (2) reviewing relevant documentation. It is not meant to be an onerous process, but IT TAKES TIME. Therefore, students are urged to contact DRP at DRP@uchastings.edu or 415-565-8948 at the very beginning of the semester to initiate this process. Students are advised to schedule an intake appointment to occur no later than FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 2016 for timely consideration of classroom-based accommodation requests for the spring semester. The deadline for completing your registration with DRP is MONDAY, MARCH 28, 2016 – but if you haven't begun the process well in advance of that date, you may be too late to receive accommodations for final exams. Please refer to the UC Hastings website at <http://www.uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/disability-resource-program/index.php> for more information.

Bar/MPRE Accommodations & Deadlines

Are you a 2L, 3L, or LLM student with a documented disability who intends to request accommodations on the MPRE or Bar Exam? You will need forms from the Disability Resource Program (DRP) verifying whether or not you received accommodations in law school. Below are some upcoming deadlines, but realize that the process usually takes significant time and energy, so you should start much earlier. The State Bar of California recommends that students with disabilities file their petition no later than three months prior to the examination they intend to take, i.e., by the end of April 2016 for the July 2016 exam (by the end of November 2015 for February 2016.) Get more information and documentation recommendations on our website by following the links to and on our Accommodations Overview Page.

>> ANNOUNCEMENTS

Take Steps NOW to Minimize Your Student Loan Payments Later!

It is time to file your 2015 tax returns. Even if you made very little (or no) money in 2015 and are not required to file a tax return, you should consider filing 2015 taxes, if you:

- Are borrowing Federal loans for law school, and
- Are planning on taking advantage of Income Driven Repayment (IDR)* plans (and the Federal Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program and our Public Interest Career Assistance Program – PICAP) to lower your monthly loan payments.

Having a 2015 Tax Return on file could make applying for IDR much simpler for you. (Also, if you are owed a tax withholding refund, you will need to file taxes to receive the refund!). Free tax assistance is available to students through the VITA Program (Feb. 8, 22, 29) (March 14, 21, 28) (April 4, 11) in the Louis B. Mayer Lounge 5:00-7:00 p.m. To learn more about how to file your Federal Taxes for FREE (and your income is less below $62,000), click here: <https://www.irs.gov/uac/Free-File:-Do-Your-Federal-Taxes-for-Free>.

Contact the Financial Aid Office if you have any questions about IDR or Loan Forgiveness programs.

 IDR plans are federal student loan repayment plans that set a monthly payment based on your current income and family size. Payments under these plans are generally lower than payments under a Standard Repayment Plan. Your loan servicer will calculate your monthly payment amount each year based on information from your tax returns, if you have two on file, or alternative documents such as a combination of one tax return and a W-2, two W-2s or current paystubs.*

Thought about Municipal Government Law? Consumer Protection? Environmental Law?

Lawyers for America offers a way in to these interesting fields. Municipal law is practiced in city attorney offices, and in private law firms that serve small cities and counties as city attorneys on contract. Two fellowships with the Berkeley City Attorney are available: what do they do? Everything: environmental/land use, transportation, health care, legislation, advising government agencies – on and on. Protecting consumers a goal? The SF public interest law office of Consumers Union (publisher of Consumer Reports magazine) takes on important issues in areas like health, insurance, and privacy (using policy/administrative tools, not just litigation). The Center for Biological Diversity is a leading nonprofit working on species protection; it is involved in many critical species battles nationwide.

2Ls, apply now for these fellowships and those with the Contra Costa District Attorney, the Contra Costa Public Defender, the Contra Costa Superior Court, and the Solano County Public Defender. More info is on the LfA website. To learn more about this experiential learning and employment opportunity, LfA Executive Director Marsha Cohen has office hours this week on Tuesday, 2-4 p.m., and Thursday, 1-3 p.m., Rm. 388 (200 McAllister), or by appointment (cohenm@uchastings.edu; 415-565-4676); LfA Academic Director Mai Linh Spencer has office hours on Thursday, 9-11 a.m., in Suite 300 of the Tower or by appointment (email spencerm@uchastings.edu).

ABA Law Student Division Regional Client Counseling Competition is in need of volunteers!

The UC Hastings College of Law in San Francisco, CA is hosting the ABA Law Student Division Region 9 Client Counseling Competition on Saturday and Sunday, February 13, 2016 and February 14, 2016. This year's topic is Criminal Law and Procedure and we expect 12 teams from 5 different schools including Hastings to compete.

The Client Counseling Competition promotes greater knowledge and interest among law students in the preventive law and counseling functions of law practice and encourages students to develop interviewing, planning, and analytical skills in the lawyer-client relationship in the law office. The competition simulates a law office consultation in which student lawyers conduct an interview with a "client." Following the interview, the student lawyers explain how they would proceed further in the hypothetical situation.

We are looking for volunteers to help with the running of the competition. On Friday, February 12, 2016 the 12 teams will be checking in and there will be a welcome reception where they will be greeted and will receive their Welcome packets. We need volunteers to help set up, greet the teams, distribute packets and give tours of the school, if requested by the team members.

On Friday, February 12, 2016 - We need people that can be available between 1 to 8 pm (not necessarily consecutively).

On Saturday, February 13, 2016, the preliminary and semifinal rounds of the competition will take place from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm - We need volunteers to help direct the teams to the various competition rooms and otherwise help with the running of the competition from roughly 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 (not necessarily consecutively).

On Sunday, February 14, 2016 the final round will take place from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm. We need volunteers to help direct the teams to the competition room and otherwise help with the running of the competition from roughly 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 (preferably consecutively).

Community Service hours (up to 25% of the hours necessary for Pro Bono graduation recognition may be satisfied this way) will be provided to UC Hastings student volunteers. Food will be provided. Please e-mail Jen Hand at hand.jennifer.l@gmail.com for more information.

If you are interested and available to volunteer at the ABA Region 9 Client Counseling Competition, please contact Adjunct Professor Virginia Villegas by email at villegasv@uchastings.edu or telephone at 415-989- 8000 ext. 22. The Open Doors 1L Shadow Program is a Spring Break job shadowing program (March 7 – March 9, 2016) jointly sponsored by BASF, UC Hastings, USF and Golden Gate Law School that will give first-year law students the opportunity to shadow attorneys in a wide range of professional legal environments in the private, public and non-profit legal sectors.

The program is geared towards individuals who have had less exposure to work environments in the legal profession. It is designed to give students the opportunity to witness the daily rhythms and rigors of legal workplaces in the private, public, and non-profit sectors and to connect with professionals, early on in your legal careers.

Summer 2016 Arc of Justice Fellowship Program

Public Advocates and the Charles Houston Bar Association (CHBA) are proud to announce a new summer 2016 fellowship opportunity for law students committed to advancing the legal and policy priorities of low-income African American communities in the Bay Area. The "Arc of Justice" is a collaboration between Public Advocates and CHBA to help increase the number of law students of color who pursue careers in public interest law. This first Arc fellow will spend the summer clerking at Public Advocates, with dedicated support from CHBA.

The fellow will leverage Public Advocates and CHBA's networks and professional development resources and will be exposed to public interest practitioners representing a wide variety of legal fields. In addition, the fellow will establish a meaningful connection with other summer law clerks and attorneys at other public interest legal organizations, minority bar associations, and private law firms or corporations.

The Arc of Justice Fellowship comes with a minimum $3,000 stipend. In order to promote diversity in public interest law, it is our intention that this stipend supplement, rather than offset, other funding sources.

Applications are being accepted on a rolling basis, for more information, visit www.publicadvocates.org and www.charleshoustonbar.org.

HLJ Symposium: The Status of Antidiscrimination Law and Litigation in the United States

Friday, 2/12/2016, 9:00am-5:15pm, ARC

The United States is experiencing remarkable transformations in the status of antidiscrimination law and litigation. The Hastings Law Journal's spring symposium brings together twenty renowned scholars and practitioners in the areas of labor, employment, and constitutional law to provide a constructive overview of these contemporary transformations. Panelists will discuss issues related to these transformations, including procedural barriers to litigating employment discrimination cases, litigating gender discrimination trials in the technology industry, and the implications of religious freedom restoration acts. The symposium will also cover the use of stereotyping evidence in discrimination cases as it relates to women of color, transgender individuals, and family caregivers.

DID YOU READ THIS WEEK'S WEEKLY?! Win some cool prizes just by reading the Weekly!

Reply to weekly@uchastings.edu by 12:00pm each Monday with the correct answers to all three questions to be eligible to be entered into the Weekly lottery. At the end of February, March, and April, two winners will be randomly chosen from the students who submitted all the correct answers that month. What's the prize? A $10 Philz Gift Card!! If you submit each week, that allows you 4 chances to win as opposed to just answering one time!

But wait, there's more! Everyone who submitted correct answers during the semester will also be put into a lottery at the end of the semester and could win an awesome end of the semester prize!
