MARCH 7 – MARCH 11

Spring Recess: March 7th – 11th!

>> DEADLINES

DRP Accommodation Deadlines

Do you have a documented disability and need accommodations, but didn't register or complete the registration process with the Disability Resource Program (DRP) in the fall? Or, do you think you might have an undiagnosed disability, or are you receiving treatment for or in the process of getting diagnosed with Depression, Anxiety, ADHD, a Learning Disability or any other so-called "hidden" or "invisible" disability? DON'T WAIT TO CONTACT DRP TO REQUEST ACCOMMODATIONS! By law and to ensure the integrity of the program, registering with DRP to determine eligibility and accommodations must be an interactive, deliberative and collaborative process. At a minimum, this includes (1) meeting with the Director for a comprehensive eligibility and access planning meeting (a.k.a., an intake meeting), and (2) reviewing relevant documentation. It is not meant to be an onerous process, but IT TAKES TIME. Therefore, students are urged to contact DRP at DRP@uchastings.edu or 415-565-8948 at the very beginning of the semester to initiate this process. Students are advised to schedule an intake appointment to occur no later than FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 2016 for timely consideration of classroom-based accommodation requests for the spring semester. The deadline for completing your registration with DRP is MONDAY, MARCH 28, 2016 – but if you haven't begun the process well in advance of that date, you may be too late to receive accommodations for final exams. Please refer to the UC Hastings website at <http://www.uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/disability-resource-program/index.php> for more information.

Bar/MPRE Accommodations & Deadlines

Are you a 2L, 3L, or LLM student with a documented disability who intends to request accommodations on the MPRE or Bar Exam? You will need forms from the Disability Resource Program (DRP) verifying whether or not you received accommodations in law school. Below are some upcoming deadlines, but realize that the process usually takes significant time and energy, so you should start much earlier. The State Bar of California recommends that students with disabilities file their petition no later than three months prior to the examination they intend to take, i.e., by the end of April 2016 for the July 2016 exam (by the end of November 2015 for February 2016). Get more information and documentation recommendations on our website by following the links to and on our Accommodations Overview Page.

Deadlines:

July 2016 California Bar Exam (Begins July 26, 2016)

Testing Accommodations Petition Final Deadline: June 15, 2016

Testing Accommodations Appeal of Denial Final Deadline: July 1, 2016

July 2016 New York State Bar Exam

Test Accommodations Application Deadline: April 29, 2016

Follow this link for more information about NYS Bar Exam Test Accommodations: <http://www.nybarexam.org/ADA/ADA.htm>

>> ANNOUNCEMENTS

Have a submission for the Weekly after Spring Break (3/14)?

There is no Weekly the week of Spring Recess (March 7-11)! If you have a submission for the March 14th Weekly; please make sure to submit them to weekly@uchastings.edu by THIS FRIDAY, March 4th @ 12:00pm! You have an extra day to submit! If you also have any events to advertised in the Weekly the week of March 14th AND 21st, those should also be requested in the Astra Room Reservation Schedule in advanced of the Friday deadline in order for them to be approved and advertised on time.

Animal Assisted Therapy a Success!

Last week's Animal Assisted Therapy visit from the SF SPCA was a great success! The next scheduled AAT visit is on Tuesday, 3/22. If you are interested in volunteering with animals, there are many great options for you to do so in the bay area. Please consider the SF SPCA or SF Animal Care and Control, both of which are relatively close to campus.

Take Steps NOW to Minimize Your Student Loan Payments Later!

It is time to file your 2015 tax returns. Even if you made very little (or no) money in 2015 and are not required to file a tax return, you should consider filing 2015 taxes, if you:

- Are borrowing Federal loans for law school, and
- Are planning on taking advantage of Income Driven Repayment (IDR)* plans (and the Federal Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program and our Public Interest Career Assistance Program – PICAP) to lower your monthly loan payments.

Having a 2015 Tax Return on file could make applying for IDR much simpler for you. (Also, if you are owed a tax withholding refund, you will need to file taxes to receive the refund!). Free tax assistance is available to students through the VITA Program (Feb. 8, 22, 29) (March 14, 21, 28) (April 4, 11) in the Louis B. Mayer Lounge 5:00-7:00 p.m. To learn more about how to file your Federal Taxes for FREE (and your income is less below $62,000), click here: <https://www.irs.gov/uac/Free-File:-Do-Your-Federal-Taxes-for-Free>.

Contact the Financial Aid Office if you have any questions about IDR or Loan Forgiveness programs.

 IDR plans are federal student loan repayment plans that set a monthly payment based on your current income and family size. Payments under these plans are generally lower than payments under a Standard Repayment Plan. Your loan servicer will calculate your monthly payment amount each year based on information from your tax returns, if you have two on file, or alternative documents such as a combination of one tax return and a W-2, two W-2s or current paystubs.*

1098-T FORMS FOR 2015-

Starting January 26, 2016, you can print your 1098-T notice off the web! Click on this link (<http://www.uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/fiscal-services/1098-t-notice/index.php>) for instructions and other pertinent information. Please email fiscal@uchastings.edu if you have any questions. Thank you!

Legal Writing Resource Center Room 468, 4th Floor of the 198 Building

The Legal Writing Resource Center is here to help you with your legal writing. We will be have appointment-only sessions Monday to Thursday from 9 AM – 5PM. We will also have limited walk-in hours Monday and Wednesday, but the best way to ensure assistance is to make an appointment. Please visit uchastings.edu/lwrc to learn how to set up an appointment and check out all of our legal writing resources, including tip sheets and slideshows to assist you in legal writing and research.

>> CAREER OFFICE CORNER

Drop-In Hours at the Career Office for Spring 2016!

- Mondays – Thursdays from 10am-12pm & 3-5pm

- Fridays from 10am-12pm

>> SCHOLARSHIP/FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

2016 Farella Braun + Martel LLP 1L Diversity Scholarship Program

Nineteen Hastings Law students have received these scholarships since the program was launched in 2001, so the chances are good that another student from Hastings will receive a scholarship this year for $10,000.

- Awards: 3-$10,000 Scholarships
- Deadline: March 7, 2016
- Website: http://www.fbm.com/Diversity_Scholarship_Program/

Squire Patton Boggs Foundation Fellowship – Summer Funding Opportunity

The Squire Patton Boggs Foundation is pleased to contribute a $5,000 fellowship to support a UC Hastings student who has completed either his/her first or second year of law school and will be working on public policy and related matters for a government agency, international organization or nonprofit public interest organization this summer. A preference will be given to veterans of the Iraqi and Afghanistan wars and students pursuing public service opportunities with organizations focused on business-related public policy issues, including economic development, banking, finance, community development, property and tax. Additional information on the Foundation and its past fellows can be found on the Foundation's website and Facebook page.

To apply for the fellowship, please submit the following materials to financialaid@uchastings.edu with Squire Patton Boggs Public Policy Fellowship in the subject line.

1. Resume
2. Law school transcript;
3. Statement of interest—two to three double-spaced pages describing the organization you will work for, the type of work you anticipate you will be doing, why you are interested in the position and your long-term career goals. Also include the information on the length of your internship and whether you will receive any pay or funding. The recipient must confirm that this fellowship will be the only source of funding for their summer position, may not be combined with any other grant, stipend, fellowship, etc.;
4. List of three references; and
5. Supporting statement from your sponsoring organization—confirming your offer, identifying your supervising attorney, and indicating the type of legal work you will do during your internship.

Applications should be submitted by Noon on Friday, March 25, 2016.

The Albert G. Evans Scholarship in Private Enterprise

Hastings College of the Law is pleased to announce the Albert G. Evans Scholarship in Private Enterprise. A cash prize of $3,000 will be awarded to two second or third year law students at Hastings who writes the best article, as judged by the Selection Committee, on a specified topic in the area of governmental regulation of private enterprise. Articles must be of publishable quality and may be written in connection with a student's work on one of the scholarly publications at Hastings, for a seminar or in an independent study project. Articles may be submitted only by the editor-in-chief of a scholarly publication or by the professor teaching the seminar or supervising the independent study for which the paper was written. For more information, check with scholarly publications or the Academic Dean's Office. Deadline for submission will be Monday, March 28, 2016.

Stephen Cone Fellowship

A $2,500 fellowship is offered to a first-year student for a project to be completed during the summer of 2016 or the recipient's second year, 2016-2017. Project proposals must be the student's own design for a project related to the field of legal writing and research, with particular emphasis on either developing his or her own skills by doing research and legal writing on a volunteer basis for a community-oriented, not-for-profit organization, or by creating and executing special workshops to help students at Hastings for whom English is a second language, who are participating in the LEOP program or who have special needs in the area of writing and research. If you plan to work with a professor or an outside agency or an office, you should provide a letter of support from the person with whom you will be working with. Please submit four (4) copies of your proposals to the Academic Dean's Office on or before Monday, March 28th. A faculty committee will select the recipient.

Summer 2016 Arc of Justice Fellowship Program

Public Advocates and the Charles Houston Bar Association (CHBA) are proud to announce a new summer 2016 fellowship opportunity for law students committed to advancing the legal and policy priorities of low-income African American communities in the Bay Area. The "Arc of Justice" is a collaboration between Public Advocates and CHBA to help increase the number of law students of color who pursue careers in public interest law. This first Arc fellow will spend the summer clerking at Public Advocates, with dedicated support from CHBA.

The fellow will leverage Public Advocates and CHBA's networks and professional development resources and will be exposed to public interest practitioners representing a wide variety of legal fields. In addition, the fellow will establish a meaningful connection with other summer law clerks and attorneys at other public interest legal organizations, minority bar associations, and private law firms or corporations.

The Arc of Justice Fellowship comes with a minimum $3,000 stipend. In order to promote diversity in public interest law, it is our intention that this stipend supplement, rather than offset, other funding sources.

Applications are being accepted on a rolling basis, for more information, visit www.publicadvocates.org and www.charleshoustonbar.org.

>> CURRENT PRO BONO OPPORTUNITIES

AT&T Pro Bono Award – Classes of 2016 and 2017

AT&T is sponsoring a $2500 award to celebrate a student's pro bono commitment. The application for the AT&T Pro Bono Award is available at: <http://www.uchastings.edu/academics/pro-bono/ATT%20Pro%20Bono%20Award.php>. The application deadline is March 18, 2016 at 5:00 p.m.

- Legal Advice and Referral Clinic (LARC) is seeking volunteers for Saturday, March 12th, from 9:45-2:30 (please note this falls on the Saturday at the end of Spring Break). LARC, is a tremendous opportunity to interact directly with clients, improve your interviewing skills, and work with lawyers across a broad spectrum of practice areas. LARC is held one Saturday a month at UCH and typically serves 100-150 community members with a wide array of legal issues. We have volunteer attorneys who are experts in criminal, immigration, housing, real estate, probate, family, employment, personal injury, consumer, and other areas of law. Student volunteers conduct intake interviews to help determine which lawyer a person needs to consult. Volunteers are asked to commit from 9:45-2:30 on the Saturday they volunteer. Second and third year students who have volunteered previously assist with document production (demand letters, answers, administrative complaints, etc.) under the direction of the attorneys. Training is provided the day of the event. If you are available and willing to commit, please email Jayme Jackson, jacksoja@uchastings.edu, with your cell phone number and indicate your language fluency in addition to English. We always need students who are fluent in Spanish, Mandarin, and Cantonese.
- The Legal Aid Association of California (LAAC) is currently seeking law student volunteers as LiveChat Operators to help people navigate LawHelpCA.org, the only statewide resource for easy access to self-help legal information and referrals to legal help. Live Chat volunteers provide direct, person-to-person help for someone in a stressful and alienating legal situation who just needs a kind, human response. This is a great opportunity for students that are interested in broadening access to justice and community education. Students can gain volunteer hours and learn about the law in many different areas. It is possible to work remotely from your computer, though the first few practice sessions take place in the Oakland office. To find out more, please email tng@laaonline.org, or call (510) 893-3000 x 102.
- LevelBar 2016 is a year-long program providing academic support and financial aid to low-income, high-potential future law students in the San Francisco Bay Area. Programming begins in January with LSAT prep and writing workshops. LevelBar is currently seeking law students to serve as peer mentors who will be individually paired with LevelBar Scholars. Peer mentors may expect a monthly time commitment of ~4 hours (inclusive of training) over the course of each semester, with a break over the summer. About half that time will be in-person with workshops addressing specific topics, and the other half will be online or at the computer. The Spring Semester workshop series will be on the following dates: February 21st, March 13th, and April 3rd. Peer mentors will be asked to help read and edit mentees' personal statements during the Fall semester. Further training on reading and editing personal statements will be provided at this time if requested. Potential peer mentors please submit a resume and brief statement of interest by email to johnston@levelbar.org For more information visit

- Homeless Legal Services holds clinics each and every Tuesday. Please meet on the Beach by 4:35 p.m. sharp. We will then walk to the St. Vincent de Paul Homeless Shelter (Northern California's largest homeless shelter) and give clients legal aid, including warrant defense aid. Our clinics conclude at 7:00 p.m. and you will earn 2.50 pro bono hours for each clinic you attend. No experience or minimum commitment necessary. We train new volunteers every clinic. All years welcome! Contact Jake Bothamley, Dylan Dordick, Andy Garrett, or George Morris with questions. jacob.bothamley@uchastings.edu ; dylan.dordick@uchastings.edu ; garrett@uchastings.edu ; gmmorris@uchastings.edu
- VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE! Homeless Legal Services is sponsoring a voter registration drive and needs volunteers on Tuesdays from 4:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. The drive will run from March 15 - April 12 and spots are limited. All volunteers will earn community service hours, which you may credit toward a portion of your pro bono hours. Please contact Andy Garrett to RSVP and get further details.
- LCCR is looking for student volunteers to conduct asylum intakes. This is a great opportunity to work with clients, issue spot in asylum claims, practice legal writing, and get pro bono hours! For those of you that are interested contact Silvia Contreras at scontreras@LCCR.com

MLPS is Seeking Volunteer Cantonese, Spanish, and Russian Interpreters

The Medical-Legal Partnership for Seniors (MLPS) Clinic is seeking volunteers who speak Cantonese, Farsi, and Russian to serve as interpreters for occasional client meetings and/or community presentations for low-income seniors. MLPS is also seeking Russian and Spanish speakers for a written translation project. Please contact Professor Troya for more info: troyay@uchastings.edu.

Professor Dorit Reiss is looking for Research Assistants!

I need a research assistant to work about 5 hours a week on projects related to vaccine law and policy. I am seeking a 2L, since I ask the students to commit for at least a year of work, because it takes time for them to learn the subject matter. A health-related background is a plus, but not required. Familiarity with vaccine law and policy is a plus, but not required. The main qualifications are research ability, curiosity and interest, and good writing skills. The pay will be according to the 2L rate and the position can be work-study or non-work-study.

Responsibilities will include preparing literature-review memos, preparing memos on legal questions, reading, editing and commenting on written materials, doing footnotes, and managing my website. According to time and willingness, there may be other specific issues that come up that the RA will be asked to comment on.

Some of my work, to give a feel for the topics, can be found here (though the list is out of date):

The Refugee & Human Rights Clinic is Seeking Spanish Interpreters

Would you like to help asylum seekers? Are you interested in immigrant rights? Interested in using your Spanish language skills? The Refugee & Human Rights Clinic is seeking Spanish interpreters for our client meetings! We are looking for commitment for the rest of the semester (starting after Spring Break) to attend weekly meetings of approximately 2 hours. No previous interpretation experience is required, but you must be fluent in both Spanish and English. $20/hour. We need an interpreter Mondays 3:30-5:30pm or Wednesdays 2:20-4:20pm. If you are interested, please contact Christine Natoli at natolic@uchastings.edu and let her know which of the time slots work for you.

Career Office Seeks An Additional Student Worker! (2Ls only)

The Career Office is seeking an additional student worker for the Spring 2016 semester. Must be Work-Study eligible. Please consult with Financial Aid regarding your eligibility and to find out what Work-Study entails.

Tasks: Reception duties, data entry, online research for employers and jobs, assistance with web updates to Career Office website, assistance with judicial clerkship research, among other tasks. You will also cover the front desk during breaks and conduct outreach by phone to update our database.

Pay Rate: $14/hour.

Please apply at <http://www.hastingscareersonline.com>, job ID 16167

Professor Jared Ellias is looking for Summer Research Assistants! (looking for 1Ls!)

Jared Ellias is looking to hire paid summer research assistants for projects focused on corporate reorganizations, corporate lending and executive compensation. If you are interested, please send an email with a resume, transcript and college transcript to elliasjared@uchastings.edu. Please indicate in the cover letter any special interest you might have in business law and whether you are eligible for work-study (you probably are; check with financial aid if you aren't sure) Experience and knowledge of finance, statistics and quantitative research is a plus, but by no means required.

Professor Karen Musalo is Seeking Research Assistants!

Professor Karen Musalo seeks a research assistant with demonstrated, excellent research skills in both legal as well as social sciences materials. Spanish is a plus! A commitment of 7-10 hours weekly is preferred. Work can be performed remotely. This is a paid position. To apply, please email cgrshires@uchastings.edu, with the following materials as an attachment: 1) a one paragraph statement describing your most relevant research experience; 2) your C.V., and 3) two references -- with preferably one of them being a law school professor familiar with your work.

LW&R/Moot Court Summer Research Assistants!

The LW&R/Moot Court Department is now hiring Research Assistants for Summer 2016. We are seeking J.D. applicants with strong academic performance in the first year required writing program, demonstrated leadership abilities, and enthusiasm for mentoring and peer education.

Summer RAs research, write and prepare class materials for the next academic year. RAs are paid on an hourly basis, and the job is a full-time commitment for at least 10-11 weeks, starting Monday, May 16, 2016. Part-time positions may be available depending on staffing needs, but applicants who can commit to full-time employment are strongly preferred.

Openings will be filled on a rolling basis, so don't wait to apply! Interested students can find more information and apply by visiting kscope.uchastings.edu > On Campus Student Jobs > Summer Research Assistant (LW&R/Moot Court). Interviews will be scheduled after submission of your application. If you have any questions, please contact Toni Young, younga@uchastings.edu, or Stephen Tollafie, tollafie@uchastings.edu.

All 3L and LLM students are encouraged to attend. We will be raffling off free or discounted bar review courses and giving away UC Hastings swag. We look forward to your participation.

If you have any questions or have any dietary restrictions for food, please contact Mark Padin at padinmark@uchastings.edu as soon as possible.

DID YOU READ THIS WEEK'S WEEKLY?!

Win some cool prizes just by reading the Weekly! Winners for January and February will be emailed this week!

Reply to weekly@uchastings.edu by 12:00pm each Monday with the correct answers to all three questions to be eligible to be entered into the Weekly lottery. At the end of February, March, and April, two winners will be randomly chosen from the students who submitted all the correct answers that month. What's the prize? A $10 Philz Gift Card!! If you submit each week, that allows you 4 chances to win as opposed to just answering one time!

But wait, there's more! Everyone who submitted correct answers during the semester will also be put into a lottery at the end of the semester and could win an awesome end of the semester prize!

Questions for Week #9:

- How many references should you have for the Squire Patton Boggs Foundation Fellowship?
- True or False: If false, state the correct answer. The AT&T Pro Bono Award gives preference to 3Ls
- What is the age range of students you would tutor for the TASP Tutoring Program?
