- Description of work: This is a great opportunity for anyone interested in law, youth development, education, or simply anyone enthusiastic about giving back to young people. FLY's nationally recognized law curriculum uses role-plays, debates, and mock city council hearings to capture youth interest, educate them about the law, and build skills like anger management, problem solving, communication, and resisting negative peer pressure. Highly trained volunteers and FLY staff teach the course in teams of 3-4, developing rapport with youth and giving them access to positive role models. The 12-week course covers a range of topics, including theft, vandalism, hate crimes, drugs and alcohol, the Three-Strikes Law, Proposition 21, and gangs.
