THE DEADLINE FOR REGISTERING WITH DRP IS FAST APPROACHING!

You must complete the registration process – (1) submit sufficient documentation and (2) participate in a comprehensive intake meeting with the Director – by Friday, October 31st, in order to register with DRP to consider accommodations for final exams.

Are you waiting to get in to see a doctor at Student Health Services? DON'T WAIT to contact DRP! Upper division students have the option of converting up to 2 GPA courses into credit/no credit grading. The last day to submit fall requests is November 5. Please see Academic Regulation 1007 for more information: http://uchastings.edu/about/admin-offices/records/index.php

Make the Commitment to Yourself: New Hastings Weight Watchers Series Starting!

Faculty, staff AND students: Hastings Weight Watchers group is starting a new cycle in three weeks, and you're invited to join us! Get support through the holiday season and a jump start on your New Year's Resolution! The WWDivas (and yes, men can be Divas, too!) offers amazing support, acceptance, encouragement, inspiration and lots of laughter. However, we won't be able to continue if we don't get enough new people -- we need a minimum of 15 people, total, to join by November 12. Think you can't spare the time? This is just one hour out of your week to focus on yourself and do something FUN and HEALTHY! Think you can't afford it? Just two lattes a week pays for the series (plus, if you replace two lattes a week with one hour of Weight Watchers, think of how much healthier you've just become!) Think you're not a "group person?" Members who attend meetings are 8 times more likely to lose weight than those that do not attend or try to do it themselves. Our group with an average of 10 members has lost 250 lbs in 24 weeks. But it's not just about weight loss … it's about making healthy choices and taking care of yourself.

Still not convinced? Come visit us at the next two meetings, Wednesday, October 29 or Wednesday, November 5, from 12:30 -- 1:30 pm in classroom 205. Worried that you'll miss the Hastings Wednesday Meditation group? It's now also offered on Thursdays! Want to talk to a WWDiva one-on-one? Contact Lisa Noshay Petro at noshaype@uchastings.edu or 415-565-4876, Robin Crawford at 415-565-4746, or Sandy Plenski at plenskis@uchastings.edu.

WRITING COMPETITION!!

The 16th Annual Entertainment Law Initiative Writing Competition

The writing contest challenges students to identify, research, and write an essay with a proposed solution on a compelling legal issue confronting the music industry. A national panel of music law experts will judge the papers in a blind process and select five finalists. The scholarship is co-sponsored by the American Bar Association (ABA). The winning essays will be published by the GRAMMY Foundation, the ABA Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries, and a major law review or journal.

Deadline is January 6th, 2015.

The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers and American Bar Association Section of Labor and Employment Law Annual Law Student Writing Competition for 2014-2015

The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers and the ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law are pleased to announce their 2014-2015 writing competition. This competition is open to articles written while the author is a student at an accredited law school in the United States. Authors may not have graduated from law school prior to December 1, 2014. Graduate students in law school (LLM candidates) are not eligible. Entries may address any aspect of public or private sector labor and/or employment law relevant to the American labor and employment bar. Students are encouraged to discuss a public policy issue, practical implications of a leading case or doctrine, a statute or the need for statutory modification, or a common law doctrine. Articles may address U.S. law, international law of relevance to U.S. labor and employment attorneys, or how a legal topic is treated in states across the country, but papers limited to the law of a single state will not be considered. Papers must be analytical in nature, not merely a summary of the law. Students must present and discuss competing points of view with respect to the issue presented and must distinguish their conclusions from opposing positions with sound logic and reference to multiple sources. Entries will be evaluated on topic selection, analysis, quality of research, grammar, spelling, usage and syntax, clarity, structure, overall appearance, and relevance to the practicing labor and employment law bar.

Deadline to submit papers is May 15th, 2015.
