Hastings Award-Winning Trial Team Need Volunteers!

Are you interested in seeing what the Hastings trial team is all about? Interested in criminal law? Just want to help your fellow Sharks out?

This year the U.C. Hastings Trial Team and California Attorneys for Criminal Justice (CACJ) are co-hosting the National Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition right here in San Francisco. The competition will be held October 16th – 19th at the Federal District Courthouse located at 450 Golden Gate and we need your help! Volunteers will serve as time keeps, greeters/ushers, and will have the opportunity to observe teams from law schools across the country duking it out in the courtroom. Please email Sarah Barkley (barkleys@uchastings.edu) for more information and to sign-up for a volunteer shifts.

Student Health Announcements

Flu Clinics
Student Health would like to help you stay healthy and prepare you for flu season by offering influenza vaccines for $15. For more information about the seasonal flu vaccines go here.

Two Drop in Clinics will be held this semester:

- Tuesday, 10/7/2014, 9 to 1 PM
  SHS, 200 McAllister Street, Room 202
- Wednesday, 10/22/2014, 11 to 3pm
  SHS, 200 McAllister Street, Room 202

Information you need:
- Prepayment is required. You must prepay in one of two ways:
  - Preferred method of payment is online.
  - If you are unable to pay online, you may pay by cash or check at Fiscal Services.
  - Bring a copy of your receipt of prepayment to Student Health Services during any of the times listed above to get your flu vaccine.
- No appointment is necessary. Students will be served on a first come- first served basis.
- If you have UC SHIP insurance, you can get fully reimbursed for this charge by submitting a claim form along with the receipt received at the time you are immunized. Claim forms are available online or at SHS. However, you MUST send your claim form along with supplemental documentation to the following address to be reimbursed:

  ```
  Anthem Blue Cross
  Attn: Jeanette Price
  11010 Olson Drive, Suite 110
  Rancho Cordova, CA 95670
  ```

If you obtain your flu shot from your local pharmacy, a referral from the UCH Student Health Services is not required, but you will have to pay out of pocket for the immunization. You will be reimbursed 100% of your charges for the immunization. Claim forms for Flu Vaccines MUST be mailed to the following address (along with a copy of your receipt):

```
Anthem Blue Cross
Attn: Jeanette Price
11010 Olson Drive, Suite 110

Current Pro Bono Opportunities

- Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights is looking for students to participate in their Pro Bono Asylum Program Helping Children Fleeing Violence from Central America. Student volunteers will conduct the initial interviews with asylum seekers, possibly conduct some country condition research, prepare short memos, and meet with asylum program staff attorneys to discuss the matter and evaluate the merits of potential cases. Students are expected to volunteer 4-8 hours monthly over the course of the academic year. Interested students should emailpchavez@LCCR.com and include “LCCR Pro Bono Asylum Program” in the subject line. Please provide (1) resume; (2) foreign language proficiency; Spanish speakers are encouraged to apply! Website: www.lccr.com

- Homeless Legal Services (HLS) is recruiting volunteers to assist some of San Francisco’s most vulnerable residents with a variety of their legal issues. Duties include performing client interviews, working with Orrick and Homeless Advocacy Project attorneys, relaying information to clients, and possibly assisting in resolving outstanding warrants. Meet on the Beach on Tuesdays (excluding Veterans day) at 4:30pm sharp to walk to the St. Vincent de Paul Society MSC South Shelter located at 525 5th Street. For more information, contact: Susan, sspeaker@uchastings.edu or Nalani, nalani.crisologo@uchastings.edu.

- LevelBar 2015 is a year-long program providing academic support and financial aid to low-income, high-potential future law students in the San Francisco Bay Area. Applications are going up this month, and programming begins in January with LSAT prep and writing workshops. Peer mentors may expect a monthly time commitment of ~4 hours (inclusive of training) over the course of each semester, with a break over the summer. The Spring semester will include more in-person workshops, and the Fall semester will have a greater focus on support for the application process. Peer mentors will be asked to help read and edit mentees’ personal statements during the Fall semester. Further training on reading and editing personal statements will be provided at this time if requested. 3L students are encouraged to participate only if they will remain in the Bay Area next fall. Students with previous experience in or with California’s network of Educational Opportunity Programs are especially welcome! Potential peer mentors please submit a resume and brief statement of interest by email to johnston@levelbar.org For questions about the program, visit our web site at www.levelbar.org

- Bay Area Legal Aid, a locally based poverty law firm, is currently looking for individuals who speak another language who are willing to volunteer their time to help with interpretation and translation for BayLegal staff. You would interpret for our cases (housing, domestic violence, immigration and more) in-person or by phone. Interpreters are needed on an on-call basis. ALL languages are needed! Please email ahill@baylegal.org or call (510) 250-5235 for more information.
Pro Bono timesheets can be printed from: http://www.uchastings.edu/academics/pro-bono/docs/Pro%20Bono%20TimeSheet%202011.pdf and can be emailed to Jayme Jackson at jacksoja@uchastings.edu or delivered to the Externships and Pro Bono Programs Office on the 3rd floor of the Tower.

Documentary Screening “Invisible Threat,” October 8th, ARC

Invisible Threat explores the science of vaccination and how fears and misconceptions have lead some parents to delay or decline vaccinating their children. This 40-minute independent, award-winning documentary was created by the students in Carlsbad High School, in South California. The film earned praise for more than fifty organizations, including the CDC, the Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia, Mayo Clinic, and Every Child By Two. The movie was described as “powerful”, “fast-paced”, “well-balanced” and “impeccably produced”.

Watch the Trailer!

The movie will be followed by a question and answer session including Professor of Law Dorit Reiss and immunologist Alusha Mamshak. Dr Mamchak obtained her PhD at the Australian National University and completed a post-doctoral fellowship at the University of California San Francisco. She is also a vaccine advocate and volunteers at the Center for Immunobiology and Vaccine Development at Children’s Hospital Oakland Research Institute and the California and San Francisco Immunization Coalition.
