

March 1, 2012

JOINT STATEMENT BETWEEN

UC HASTINGS

&

AFSCME LOCAL 3299, COLLEGE SERVICE UNIT

UC Hastings College of the Law and AFSCME Local 3299, College Service Unit are pleased to announce that after a year of bargaining, a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) has been completed. The members ratified the contract with a 98% yes vote on February 2, 2012. The UC Hastings Board of Directors voted to approve the CBA on February 14, 2012.

Highlights of the agreement include an end to a multi-year wage freeze, protection of benefits and clear, fair work rules on the job.

With this new agreement in place, the UC Hastings community will move forward together with a shared mission of making UC Hastings a leader in legal education, and a good place to work. We also look forward to partnering in Sacramento to protect UC Hastings' high standing in California's public higher education system and securing appropriate funding levels. Through our newly established labor-employer relationship, we can better provide the top-notch education for which UC Hastings is known.

AFSCME 3299, Hastings United Bargaining Team

Jolynn Jones

Mark Farrier

Cecilia Moreira

Laura Irvine

Frank H. Wu, Chancellor & Dean

UC Hastings College of the Law