Hastings students may pursue a joint degree while attending UC Hastings. To be eligible for the program, students must:

- complete the first year curriculum at Hastings with a 2.50 GPA or better
- be admitted to a graduate program in a law related discipline

Once approved students must complete 5 full-time semesters and 74 units in residence (including all graduation requirements). Upon conference of your graduate degree and receipt of an official transcript, Hastings will credit you with one semester of residence and transfer 12 units of credit from the other program. If the graduate program will reciprocate, you can save a full year of coursework between the two schools.

Complete this form and submit to the Records Office along with a copy of your letter of admission to an accredited graduate program and a written statement of objectives, proposed curriculum and dates of attendance at each institution.
