DIRECTIONS

1. This examination is closed book. You may not have any materials with you in the exam room.
2. This examination consists of Part I – fifteen multiple choice problems, worth about 1/3 of the grade – and Part II – three essay questions, worth about 2/3 of the grade. You are free to divide your time as you wish. I suggest that you spend about sixty minutes on the multiple choice problems, and the remainder of your time in reading, analyzing and answering the essay questions, which appear to me to be roughly equal in difficulty.
3. Read each multiple choice problem carefully and select the best answer in light of our course of study. Mark your answer on the Scantron sheet provided. For the Scantron sheet, use score sheet side and a #2 pencil. For the ID number use your 4-digit EXAM number, flush left, no 0s. The test form is A. Exam number: 1. For Name: print your professor's name. Subject: course name. Leave date blank. Erase incorrect answers completely.
4. Read each essay problem carefully and discuss each issue within our course of study that is reasonably raised by the facts. You should assume that general contract law rules and principles (as found in the cases we have studied and the Restatement (Second) of Contracts) will generally be followed in all relevant jurisdictions, and that the Uniform Commercial Code is in force. If in answering essay questions you believe that facts not stated (but consistent with those that are stated) would or might be relevant, indicate what those additional facts might be, and why they could be important. When discussing the parties' obligations to one another, consider also what the available remedies for either party might be.
5. For bluebooks, write on every other line and on only one side of each page. Please place your examination number – but NOT your name – on each bluebook. Please remember to write legibly.
6. DO NOT PUT YOUR NAME OR OTHER IDENTIFYING INFORMATION ON YOUR ANSWERS.
