

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW

FINAL EXAM: CIVIL PROCEDURE I
(COURSE # 10512)

PROFESSOR ZACHARY PRICE

DATE: NOVEMBER 30, 2017

TOTAL TIME: 3 HOURS 30 MINUTES

PART I
INSTRUCTIONS

1. Materials Allowed: This examination is closed book. You may NOT consult any outside materials during the exam. You may use a computer ONLY to type your answers to Part II of the exam. Do not access any other electronic files or the Internet during the exam.

2. Questions: Part I of the exam consists of 24 multiple choice questions. Each multiple choice question is equally weighted. Part I of the exam as a whole will count for one third of your grade. (Part II of the exam counts for the additional two thirds.) Budget your time carefully.

3. Responses: Select only one answer to each multiple-choice question. Pick the “best” answer from among the four options. Enter your answers on the scantron sheet. Answers written on the exam itself will not be counted. For each multiple choice question, assume the case is in federal court unless the question states otherwise.

4. Congratulations and good luck! I have thoroughly enjoyed teaching all of you this semester. I hope that I will have the chance to teach you again later in law school, and in any event I hope very much that you will stay in touch.

All exam materials including scratch paper must be turned in to the proctor at the end of the exam. After the exam has been graded, the exam questions in this part will be retained by instructor and the exam answers for this part will be retained by instructor.

PART II
INSTRUCTIONS

1. Materials Allowed: This examination is closed book. You may NOT consult any outside materials during the exam. You may use a computer ONLY to type your answers to Part II of the exam. Do not access any other electronic files or the Internet during the exam.

2. Questions: Part II of the exam consists of two essay questions. Read each question carefully in its entirety before you start your response. Each question will count for one third of your grade. (Part I of the exam counts for an additional one third.) Budget your time carefully.

3. Responses: In your responses, you should analyze as thoroughly as possible each issue reasonably raised by the facts and the call of the question. Your grade on these questions will be based principally on your correct identification of issues and the quality and thoroughness of your analysis. Clear expression and good organization will also be rewarded.

4. Ambiguities: If you find it necessary to make a factual assumption in your response, please state your assumption and continue with your response.

5. Bluebooks: If you are using bluebooks, please write on one side only of each page, double-space your responses, and number your bluebooks. Please also write legibly. If your response cannot be deciphered, it cannot be given full credit.

6. Computers: If you are using Exemplify on a computer, your exam will be formatted automatically to be double-spaced.

7. Congratulations and good luck! I have thoroughly enjoyed teaching all of you this semester. I hope that I will have the chance to teach you again later in law school, and in any event I hope very much that you will stay in touch.

All exam materials including scratch paper must be turned in to the proctor at the end of the exam. After the exam has been graded, the exam questions in this part will be returned to students and the exam answers for this part will be returned to students.
