INSTRUCTIONS

1. This examination is closed book. You may not refer to any materials.
2. This exam consists of Part I - two essay problems - worth about 60% of the grade and Part II - twenty multiple choice problems - worth about 40% of the grade. You may divide your time as you wish. I suggest that you spend about seventy-five minutes on Essay Problem 1, about sixty minutes on Essay Problem 2, and about seventy-five minutes on the multiple choice problems.
3. Read each essay problem carefully and discuss each issue within our course of study that is reasonably raised by the facts. Read each multiple choice problem carefully and select the best answer in light of our course of study. Mark your answer on the Scantron sheet provided.
4. You should assume that general contract law rules and principles apply even though a particular city or state may be mentioned in a problem, unless otherwise stated.
5. For bluebooks, write on every other line and on one side of each page as much as possible. Please place your examination number on each bluebook. Please remember to write legibly.
6. DO NOT PUT YOUR NAME OR OTHER IDENTIFYING INFORMATION IN YOUR ANSWERS.
7. After the exam is graded: Part I (Essay) – Question and Answers will be returned to students. Part II (Multiple Choice) -- Question and Answers will be retained by the College.
