COURSE # 31721

PROFESSOR GREANEY

EXAM DATE: APRIL 30, 2018

TIME: THREE HOURS

MATERIALS ALLOWED IN THE EXAM ROOM:

OPEN BOOK/OPEN HARD DRIVE

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Time Allotted for entire exam: This is a 3-hour exam.
2. Materials Allowed. The exam is open book/open hard drive. You may access any notes, PowerPoint slides, outlines, or other materials you have on your hard drive.
3. Exam Structure. The exam consists of three essay questions. Answer every question. Each question has several subparts. The relative weight of each question is indicated: Please budget your time accordingly.
4. Writing your answers: You may cite cases or statutes with a shorthand name, e.g. "Krizek" or "Stark". If you are running short on time you may use an outline form of answer; BUT be sure to explain clearly, with headings, what issue each point relates to. Where possible, organize your answers by each subpart in the problem.
