INSTRUCTIONS:

1. This examination consists of three parts. PART I is one essay (worth 40 points). PART II is an objective section consisting of 32 True-False Questions (worth 1 point each). PART III is an objective section consisting of 14 multiple-choice questions (worth 2 points each). You may type on your computer (or write in a bluebook), the answers to PART I. You should answer the questions in PART II and PART III by circling the correct answer where designated.
2. This is a closed book examination.
3. Students will have three and one-half hours to complete this examination.
4. If additional, unstated facts would affect your answer to the essay question, state what those facts are, and how they would affect your analysis. For purposes of the exam, assume that California procedural law applies, unless otherwise noted.
5. Please type or write neatly and feel free to underline or highlight appropriate portions of your essay answer. Remember to marshal the facts in support of your analysis and conclusion.
6. Budget your time accordingly. Consider the points available for each section in this regard.
7. Think about and organize your answer before starting to write. Clarity and organization will be rewarded.
