Key Points Discussed
No.	Topic	Highlights
1.	Communication	Reaching out to faculty and students to solicit information is imperative as we refine academic programs; so is coordination with other committees/initiatives.
2.	Accountability	Must articulate objectives, consider how to best assess our progress and success, considering multiple means of evaluation.
3.	Academic Freedom	Should be flexible, ensuring faculty have latitude within goals.
4.	Student-centric perspectives	Should articulate “21 st century problem-solving professionals” to students as we incorporate students into process.
5.	Integrate overall plan implementation	Stay informed and connected to other goal committees.
