

333 Golden Gate Programming Document

What is in it?

1

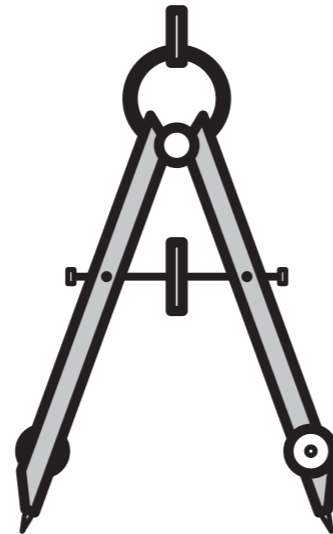

---

Quantitative Program

Allocation of building square footage for both shared and dedicated space types

2

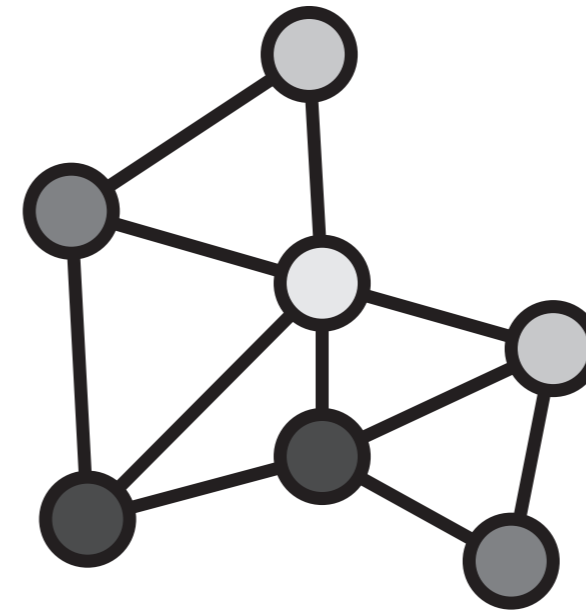

---

Design Standards (General)

Detailed design standards for classrooms, offices, and meeting spaces

3

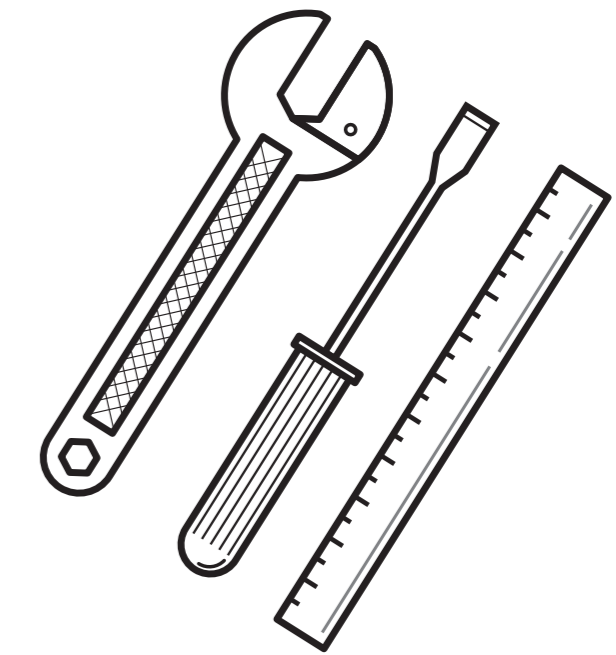

---

Functional Requirements

Design requirements for specific departments or functions that have directly been identified for inclusion/relocation to 333 Golden Gate

4

---

Building Specifications

Additional functions and requirements for the new building that are not captured in the first three sections, such as campus connectivity and stacking priorities

333 Golden Gate Programming Document

How is the document compiled?

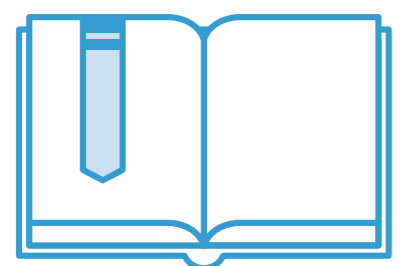

Workgroups
Gather Information

Sustainability

Admin

Classrooms

MKThink
Synthesizes
Information and Creates Draft
Documents for Review

MKTHINK

Draft documents are reviewed and refined

Comprehensive Programming Document is shared with DGS and
the Master Architect

333 Golden Gate Programming Document

Document timeline

LRCP 3.0
Committee Meeting

First Draft
Due

Second
Draft Due

Final Programming
Document
Due to Master
Architect

10.14.2015

10.23.2015

11.12.2015

12.01.2015

DOCUMENT COMPILATION

DOCUMENT REVIEW AND REFINEMENT

