FIELD FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION OF CORPORATIONS & PARTNERSHIPS

January 3, 2012

January 9, 2012

For this course, we will use Lind, Schwarz, Lathrope & Rosenberg, Fundamentals of Business Enterprise Taxation (4th ed., 2008) [hereinafter, the "Casebook"], and the 2011 Student Update to the Casebook. You can find the student update posted on the course webpage. You will also need access to the Code and Treasury Regulations; you may use the Code/Reg book from your basic tax class if you would like.

For the first class session (1/9/12), the assignment is as follows:

Introduction - Overview of Business Enterprise Taxation

- Introduction: Please read pages 2-10, 24-37, 396-401 of the Casebook, including the student updates to pages 8, 25, 32 and 36. Please skim pages 401-413 of the Casebook. Please do the problems on pages 31-32 of the Casebook.
- Tax Classification of Business Enterprises: Please read the Code/Reg sections that are listed on pages 10, 12, and 15 of the Casebook. Please read pages 10-20 of the Casebook, and skim pages 20-24 of the Casebook. Please do problem #1 on page 21 of the Casebook.

Partnerships - Formation of a Partnership

- Contributions of Property: Please read the Code/Reg sections that are listed on page 40 of the Casebook. Please read pages 40-46 of the Casebook. For the problem on page 46, please do part 1(a) for Partners A and B only.

Please sign up on the course webpage on TWEN: <http://lawschool.westlaw.com/manage/homepage.aspx?courseid=126266>

I am looking forward to a great semester.

FRESHMAN

ADVANCED NEGOTIATION

January 3, 2012

January 10, 2012

Please read the article Lie Detection and The Negotiation Within, 16 Harv. Neg. L. Rev. 263 (2011). It is available at http://www.clarkfreshman.com/wp-content/uploads/2010/02/HNLR\_Freshman.pdf.

Please write a page or two about why your hopes and fears about taking the class. It would be helpful to refer to particular examples from the article, such as examples of mindfulness and/or lie detection that you found especially appealing or especially unappealing. As best you can, please send your one or two pages to Clark Freshman by submitting on the class website on TWEN and by sending to freshman@uchastings.edu. It would be helpful to submit this by noon on the Friday before class.

FRIES

NEGOTIATION & SETTLEMENT

December 16, 2011

January 10, 2012

Please read Shell, Bargaining for Advantage, Introduction and chapter 1 (Your Bargaining Style)

You will negotiate a lease for an apartment in class with another student. You will either be the prospective tenant (a law student) or the landlord (a young, married musician, with a 3-year-old daughter, who owns-- with your parents-- a pair of flats in San Francisco, who is living in the lower flat and renting out the other flat). Roles will be assigned by Prof. Fries in class. Prepare for both roles (you won't know which you'll do). Think about what would matter (or has mattered) to you as the landlord and as the prospective tenant. At least the following terms need to be negotiated:

- Term of the lease
- Rent/compensation
- Utilities
- Uses/limitations
- House rules (if any)
- Subleasing

Prepare a negotiation plan for each role (see Shell's Appx. B as an example).

Week 1. The Question: How to Divide Taxing Jurisdiction in a Global Economy?
Defining a U.S. Taxpayer

Tuesday January 10 and Thursday January 12, 2012

References are to the casebook, Christians Donaldson & Postlewaite, United States International Taxation (2d ed. 2011). Statutory/reg supplement is Lathrope, Selected Sections: United States International Taxation

Reading: CDP Unit 1; §§ 7701(a)(4), (5), (30); § 7701(b); 877(a)(1) & (2), (b)(1), (d)(1)(A) & (B); skim §§ 1, 11, 871, 877A, 881; Avi-Yonah, The Structure of International Taxation: A Proposal for Simplification, 74 TEX. L. REV. 1301-16 (1996); Notice 98-11; Notice 98-35

1. The casebook (e.g. p. 6, Figure 1-2) suggests that U.S. persons are taxed on their worldwide income. How can this be reconciled with the assertion in the Avi-Yonah piece that taxation of active income differs from taxation of passive income?
  2. What is the consensus goal for a system of international taxation as articulated by the League of Nations 1923 report?
  3. How might a "supranational norm" like an agreement for how to tax different kinds of income come about?
  4. Prepare Problem 1-2.
  5. Prepare Problem 1-3.
  6. Prepare Problem 1-4.
  7. Prepare Problem 1-5.
  8. Prepare Problem 1-1.
  9. What does it mean to "check the box"? Which of the following entities are eligible to do so?
    - a. A Swiss or French SA
    - b. A Swiss or French SARL
  10. According to Notice 98-11, what problems are raised by the check-the-box rules for enforcement of U.S. international corporate tax law? Why do you think Notice 98-35 was issued?

RAO                      CONSTITUTIONAL LAW II                      January 5, 2012                      January 10, 2012

Welcome back to the Spring Semester! For our first class next Tuesday January 10th, please read pp. 831-843 and pp. 843-855 on Privacy and Abortion from our textbook, which is Stone, Seidman, Sunstein, Tushnet and Karlan on Constitutional Law (6th edition Aspen 2009). You should also skim the background materials on the Privileges and Immunities Clause, Incorporation, and especially the Rise and Fall of Lochner v. New York at pp. 711-728, 729-735, and especially 735-761 which (hopefully) you studied in Constitutional Law I, because I plan to briefly review this material before we begin our discussion with the Constitutional Right to Privacy set forth in Griswold v. Connecticut.

TIERNEY                      CONFLICT OF LAWS § 28021                      January 3, 2012                      January 10, 2012

For the first class, to be held on Tuesday, January 10 in Rm. 198/B1 at 10.50 am, read chapter 1, pp. 1-6 (Introduction) and the first 25 pages of chapter 8 (Choosing the Rule of Decision) of the coursebook, Peter Hay, Russell Weintraub and Patrick J. Borchers, Conflict of Laws Cases and Materials, 13th ed. (2009). Once chapter 8 is completed, the book will be dealt with in the following order and students should keep 25 pages ahead of class discussion throughout the semester:

- ch. 6 - pp. 353-404
  - ch. 5 - pp. 228-352
  - ch. 9 - beginning on p. 733 to end
  - ch. 11 - pp. 849-978.

TIERNEY                      JURISPRUDENCE § 43221                      January 3, 2012                      January 12, 2012

For the first class, to be held on Thursday, January 12 in Rm. 198/304 at 1.10 pm there is no assignment and I do not require students to buy any book for this course. However, for those who like some point of reference, I think a used copy of the paperback edition of Anthony D'Amato, ed., Analytic Jurisprudence Anthology (1996) is helpful, although the course will range beyond it.
