

Tuition Comparison

In 1990, 80 percent of the law school's academic budget was provided by the State of California. Today, less than 14 percent of our budget is comprised of state support, and significant increases in tuition have been essential.

Your support, and that from other generous alumni, is essential to meet the growing financial demands from state cuts and to provide the best legal education to our students.

Class of	In-state	Out-of-state	Academic Year
2011	$39,085	$50,310	2010-11
2006	$22,297	$33,522	2005-06
2001	$11,232	$20,353	2000-01
1996	$9,208	$16,907	1995-96
1991	$2,253	$8,669	1990-91
1986	$1,212	$5,028	1985-86
1981	$832	$3,232	1980-81
1976	$660	$2,160	1975-76
1971	$480	$1,680	1970-71
1966	$220	$1,020	1965-66
1961	$120	$620	1960-61