

Table Of Contents

Chapter I: Law and the Pharmacist	1
What Is “The Law?”	1
Constitutions	2
Legislation	2
Adoption	2
Interpretation	3
Administrative Rules and Regulations	4
Agency Guidance Documents	7
Private Standards	8
Sources of Law [chart]	9
Conflicting Federal and State Laws	10
The Role of the Courts	11
Judicial Scrutiny of Laws and Regulations	11
The Common Law	12
The Pharmacist’s Responsibility	14
Changing the Law	15
Chapter II: Drug Classifications	17
Drugs	17
New Drugs	18
Off-Label Uses	22
Generics	22
Over-the-Counter Drugs	24
Biologics	25
Devices	26
“Dangerous” Drug or Device	27
Controlled Substances	28
The Case of “Medical Marijuana”	30
Dietary Supplements	36
Chemicals and Precursors	37
Chapter III: Licensing Pharmacists and Other Individuals	41
The Pharmacist	42
Criteria for Licensure	42
The Internship	43
Character Requirements	46
The Pharmacist Licensure Exam	46
Recognition of Out-of-State Licensure (Reciprocity)	48
Licensure Fees	48
Unauthorized Practice of Pharmacy	48
Responsibilities After Licensure	49

The Pharmacy Technician	51
History and Background	51
Licensing Requirements	52
Functions	52
Responsibility of Pharmacy and Pharmacist for Technicians	53
Technician Trainees	55
Ratios	55
Community Pharmacy Personnel Ratios [chart]	57
Designated Representatives	58
Chapter IV: Licensing Pharmacies	61
The Pharmacy	62
The Application	62
Pharmacy Ownership	63
Pharmacy Premises	67
Building Requirements	67
Pharmacy Security	68
Restrictions on Pharmacy Business	70
Quality Assurance	70
Policies and Procedures	71
Pharmacy Personnel	72
The Pharmacist-in-Charge	72
The Hospital Pharmacy	74
Nonresident Pharmacies	77
Specialty Pharmacies	78
Policies and Procedures [list]	87
Chapter V: Other Pharmacy Board Licensees	89
Manufacturers	89
Regulation of Manufacturing	90
The Pharmacy Exemption	91
Wholesalers	92
Nonresident Wholesalers	97
Hypodermic Dealers	97
Veterinary Food-Animal Drug Retailers	100
Clinics	101
Other Institutions	104

Chapter VI: Scope of Practice for Pharmacists	105
The Changing Role of the Pharmacist	105
Compounding and Dispensing	107
Provision of Information	107
Emergency Contraception	108
Clinical Functions	110
In A Licensed Health Care Facility	110
In Other Health Care Settings	110
Immunizations	111
Skin Puncture and Other Patient Assessment Procedures	112
Pharmacists and Health Facility Management	114
Acute Care Hospitals	114
Intermediate and Long-Term Care Facilities	115
Home Health Care	116
Prescribers' Offices and Clinics	117
Correctional and Other Restricted Facilities	118
Other Uses of a Pharmacist's Skills	119
Chapter VII: Ordering, Receipt, Maintenance, and Transfer of Drugs and Devices	121
Ordering the Drug or Device	122
Packaging and Labeling	124
Maintaining	124
Transferring	124
To Other Pharmacies and Wholesalers	125
Prescribers' Offices and Clinics	125
Hospitals and Other Licensed Health Care Facilities	125
Supplying Ambulances	126
Supplying Officers of Ocean Vessels	127
Supplying Correctional and Other Restricted Facilities	127
Loss and Theft	128
Excessive Sales	130
Drug Samples, Secondary Sourcing, and Counterfeiting	131
Drug Samples	131
Secondary Sourcing	132
Counterfeit Drugs	134
Return and Destruction of Drugs	134
Import and Export	138
Chapter VIII: Preparation of Drugs by a Pharmacy	143
History	143
Preparing From Stock	144
Pharmacy Compounding	145
Federal Law	145
California Compounding Policy	147

Other Federal and State Drug Laws 150
 Misbranding 150
 Adulteration 152
 False or Misleading Statements 153
 Enforcement 155
 Expiration and “Beyond-Use” Dates 156

Chapter IX: The Prescription Process: From Receipt to Labeling 159

Prescription Defined 160
 Who May Issue a Drug Order? 161
 Physicians 163
 Other Medical Professionals 163
 Nurses 164
 Physician Assistants 165
 Naturopaths 167
 Pharmacists 167
 Physical Therapists and Chiropractors 167
 Issuance of Drug Orders: A Summary [chart] 168
 Federal Employees 168
 Out-of-State Prescribers 169
 Foreign Prescribers 170
 For Whom May a Prescription Be Issued? 170
 Off-Label Uses and Unapproved Drugs 171
 Who May Transmit the Order and In What Form? 172
 Controlled Substance Prescription Forms 175
 From Triplicates to Security Forms 175
 The California Form 176
 Using the Controlled Substance Prescription Form 177
 Exceptions for Schedule II Prescriptions 178
 Controlled Substance Crimes 181
 Electronic Monitoring (CURES) 181
 Receipt of the Prescription 182
 Evaluation of the Prescription 183
 Forgeries 184
 Filling the Order 186
 Preparation of the Prescription 190
 Prescription Containers 190
 The Prescription Label 191
 Before Dispensing 193

Chapter X: The Prescription Process: Dispensing and Beyond	195
Before Dispensing	195
Patient Profiles	196
Patient Consultation	197
Who May Dispense?	201
To Whom May the Prescription Be Delivered?	202
Refills	204
Transfer of a Prescription	206
Common Electronic Files	208
Patient Privacy	208
Emergency Provision of Drugs	209
Prescription Pricing	212
Prescription Price Information	214
Internet Practice and Transactions	215
Telemedicine	215
Telepharmacy	216
Chapter XI: Record-Keeping	219
Records for Dangerous Drugs and Dangerous Devices	219
The Importance of Records	220
What Records Are Required?	220
The Inventory	222
Keeping and Producing Records	223
Maintaining Records on the Premises	223
Records of Controlled Substances	224
Accountability of the Pharmacist	226
Other Records	226
Patient Profiles	226
Miscellaneous Records	226
Electronic Records and Signature Laws	227
Required Records: The List	228
Chapter XII: Practice Pitfalls	231
Grounds for Discipline	232
In General	232
Quality of Care Issues	232
Errors and Omissions	233
Drug-Related Conduct	236
Improper Filling of Controlled Substance Prescriptions	238
Meeting Patients' Needs for Controlled Substances: Pain Management	245
Fraud, Deceit, and Corruption	248
Improper Business Practices	250
Other Grounds for Discipline	253
Criminal Convictions	253

Violation of Laws Governing Pharmacy	254
Miscellaneous Grounds for Discipline	255
Board Discipline as Grounds for Other Agency Action	256
Special Concerns for Employee Pharmacists	257
Categories of Liability	259
Regulatory Liability	259
Criminal Liability	259
Asset Forfeiture	260
Civil Liability	260
Miscellaneous Liability Risks	261
Chapter XIII: The Board of Pharmacy and Other Agencies	263
The Board of Pharmacy	263
Structure of the Board	264
Authority of the Board	265
Continuity of the Board	266
Staff	266
The Executive Officer	267
Access to Board Meetings and Records	267
Board Publications	269
The Application Review Process	270
The Investigative and Inspection Process	270
Actions Available Against Licensees	271
Other Agencies Relevant to Board Licensees	274
Dealing with DEA	276
Monitoring Systems	277
Chapter XIV: Other Law Relevant to Pharmacy	279
Setting Up a Business	279
Antitrust Issues	281
Protecting the Patient's Right to Privacy	282
Nature of the Right	282
Privacy Protection Under California Law	284
Federal Privacy Protection	285
Disclosure Issues	288
Anti-Discrimination Laws	290
Working Conditions	290
Filling Prescriptions for Experimental Drugs	293

Chapter XV: Ethics and Law	295
The Code of Ethics for Pharmacists	296
Conscience Clause	297
Specific Ethical Dilemmas	298
Appendices	305
A: Study Guide for the California Pharmacist Jurisprudence Exam (CPJE)	305
B: Definitions of Various Health Facilities	313
C: Other State and Federal Agencies	315
Index	319