Howard Watkins graduated from Hastings in 1972. On graduation, he joined Central California Legal Services where he practiced until 1987. He then joined the Fresno County Counsel's staff where he currently is serving as Deputy County Counsel IV. Howard has a wealth of litigation experience, having argued more than 150 cases in the Appellate Court and more than 1,500 cases in the Superior, Municipal and Justice courts. Throughout his career, Howard has been active in various bar and community activities, having served as president of the Fresno County Bar Association and the Fresno Chapter of the ACLU, as well as chair of the Fresno County Planning Commission. Howard enjoys photography and family genealogy.
