

Litigation Staff Attorney Position
Environmental Law and Justice Clinic
Golden Gate University School of Law, San Francisco, CA

Title: Staff Attorney, Environmental Law & Justice Clinic,
Golden Gate University School of Law
Reports to: Clinic Director and Litigation Director
Classification: Full-time for one year starting Aug. 1, 2006, exempt; potential for extension
Salary Range: Based on public interest scale and commensurate with experience ($50-60K); plus the University's benefits package

•• Position Summary •• The award-winning Environmental Law and Justice Clinic at Golden Gate University School of Law in San Francisco is seeking a staff attorney with significant litigation experience to serve as a full-time staff attorney for one year, with a potential for extension.

•• Environmental Law & Justice Clinic •• Established in 1994, the Clinic is part of the law school and is staffed by students, a scientist and two full-time professors. The Clinic's twin missions are to train students to become effective, ethical lawyers and to provide excellent service to low-income communities and communities of color bearing disproportionate environmental burdens. The Clinic has successfully fought air, soil and water pollution from refineries, power and manufacturing plants, and military facilities through lawsuits, participation in administrative proceedings and providing legal and technical assistance to clients in their organizing efforts.

•• Golden Gate University School of Law •• GGU has one of the top environmental programs in the country. U.S. News & World Report has ranked the environmental law program in the top 20 in the nation and third in California.

•• Job Description •• The staff attorney will have substantial litigation responsibility in cases against pollution sources and government agencies, including developing cases and litigation strategies consistent with the mission of the clinic; assist in other Clinic cases, as necessary; and supervise students. The staff attorney generally will not have other teaching responsibilities.

•• Qualifications ••

- A minimum of 5 years of extensive litigation experience, with skills and willingness to have primary responsibility in certain clinic cases and to handle court trials
- Bar membership in California
- Commitment to community service and social justice
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- High degree of professionalism in dealings with staff, colleagues, and opponents
- Familiarity with environmental and administrative laws preferred
- Interest in mentoring and supervising students in clinic litigation
- Ability to handle a flexible but demanding work schedule

•• To Apply •• Send a cover letter highlighting your qualifications, resume, writing sample, and list of references by May 30, 2006, to:

Professors Alan Ramo (aramo@ggu) and Helen Kang (hkang@ggu.edu)
Environmental Law and Justice Clinic
Golden Gate University School of Law
536 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA 94105-2968

4/17/2006