

The American Constitution Society, one of the nation's leading progressive legal organizations, seeks an energetic and versatile Associate Director for Student Chapters to manage the programming and expansion of a national network of 148 student chapters in cities across America. The Associate Director for Student Chapters will:

- * Manage an existing network of ACS Student chapters at law schools across America;
- * Facilitate the programming of student chapters, including national competitions;
- * Lead the effort to found ACS student chapters on new campuses;
- * Oversee the student chapter office budget;
- * Integrate student chapter activities and chapter members into ACS's various substantive initiatives; and
- * Develop and plan signature events to raise ACS's profile and broaden its impact in key legal markets around the country.

The ideal candidate will have excellent interpersonal skills, organizing experience and knowledge of current legal and public policy issues. Some travel for meetings and events is required. A law degree is strongly preferred, and campaign or other organizing experience is highly desirable. Salary will be commensurate with experience.

ACS is an equal opportunity employer; women and people of color are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should e-mail a cover letter and resume to jobs@ACSLaw.org or fax them to (202) 393-6189 (Attention: Erin Colling, Office Manager). No phone calls please.
