Legal Action Center
918 F Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004

AILF Legal Action Center Staff Attorney
(This position is available immediately)

The American Immigration Law Foundation was established in 1987 as a tax-exempt, not-for-profit organization. Our mission is to increase public understanding of immigration law and policy, to promote public service and professional excellence in the immigration law field, and to advance fundamental fairness, due process, and basic constitutional and human rights in immigration law and administration. The Legal Action Center is the legal and litigation arm of the American Immigration Law Foundation.

Responsibilities: Reporting to the Legal Action Center's Director, the Staff Attorney will:

Provide practice materials and litigation resources to immigration practitioners;

Write and submit amicus briefs to federal courts and agencies;

Support the Litigation Clearinghouse by helping identify and analyze immigration litigation nationwide;

Help develop and participate in affirmative impact litigation;

Educate and mentor immigration practitioners.
