

Equal Access Fund Attorney, Civil Rights Staff Attorney, Border Violence Project Attorney, for:

The Center for Human Rights and Constitutional Law <<http://www.centerforhumanrights.org>>, a Los Angeles non-profit organization that focuses its work on the civil and human rights of insular minorities including immigrants, refugees, children, and indigenous peoples.

Equal Access Fund Attorney: Provides technical, litigation and advocacy support and training to California legal services groups, community-based organizations, pro bono attorneys, and eligible clients in individual and major class action cases and state and federal policies dealing with immigrant children, trafficking victims, survivors of domestic violence, crime victims, and those eligible for other forms of legalization.

Salary: $45,000-50,000 DOE, plus medical and dental insurance and relocation assistance.

Border Violence Project Attorney: Provides technical, litigation and advocacy support and training to legal services organizations and community-based organizations in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas on cases and policies involving border militarization and violence, including cases involving vigilantism, Border Patrol violence, and local law enforcement involvement in immigration enforcement.

Salary: $40,000-50,000 DOE, plus medical and dental insurance and relocation assistance.

Civil Rights Attorney: Provides technical, litigation and advocacy support and training to legal services providers and community-based organizations focusing on major class action cases and policy advocacy on a range of issues impacting immigrants, asylees, and children.

Salary: $40,000-55,000 DOE, plus medical and dental insurance and relocation assistance.

General qualifications: Strong commitment to social justice, excellent research and writing skills, admitted to practice, Spanish required for border violence project position, immigration experience required for EAF position, litigation experience required for civil rights litigation position.

To apply please forward (A) a cover letter (include (1) languages spoken and fluency, (2) lead time needed to start work if offered and you accept a position), (3) three references, and (4) if you wish, specify position(s) interested in), (B) resume, and (C) two writing samples.

Send documents in MSWord, RTF or PDF formats (avoid Word Perfect format) to Peter Schey at pschey@centerforhumanrights.org, with copies to astevenson@humanrights.org, crholquin@centerforhumanrights.org and myoung@centerforhumanrights.org.

In subject line in CAPS please insert: ATTORNEY POSITION APPLICANT followed by your name.

These positions are available and will be filled as qualified candidates are identified.