

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT:

POLICY ADVOCATE

Join the movement to end abuse. We are a dynamic national organization committed to stopping violence in our homes, neighborhoods, and around the world. We seek a creative, energetic individual with an entrepreneurial spirit to help us advocate on behalf of women, children and their families.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Policy Advocate will provide advocacy, legislative analysis, coalition-building and research around issues related to ending domestic and sexual violence against women and their families and will serve as a liaison between Members of Congress and Administration and the FVPF. The person will be expected to:

- Track, analyze and draft federal legislation on issues related to preventing violence against women and children. Legislative efforts will focus on appropriations for health care and prevention initiatives as well as new legislation addressing violence against women and girls internationally;
- Compose, edit and produce correspondence, reports, and other written materials;
- Develop fact sheets and talking points for use with media, members of Congress and the Administration;
- Coordinate advocacy efforts including managing list serves and organizing Congressional events
- Assist in identifying and applying for potential funding opportunities.

Experience and Skills:

Candidate for the Advocate position should have at least 4 years experience working in policy advocacy or on the Hill. A college degree is required and a graduate degree or JD is preferred and may substitute for some of the work experience. Candidate must have excellent oral and written communication skills, be able to work independently, and have experience creating change. A commitment to ending violence against women is essential. This position could be part- or full-time. People of color are strongly encouraged to apply.

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

Salary range will depend on experience. Benefits are excellent and include medical, dental, life, disability, and 401(k) as well as generous sick, vacation and holiday schedules.

To Apply:

To apply, please send resume and cover letter by June 15 to:

FVPF Policy Advocate
1522 K St. NW #550
Washington, DC 20005

No phone calls please.