

Dear First Year Law Student,

Welcome to UC Hastings! The Student Services Department and the entire college are actively preparing for your arrival. Here's some information you need to know.

Orientation Schedule is Now Available Online

Orientation will be held on Wednesday- Friday August 17-19, 2011. Click here for a detailed orientation schedule.

Orientation is required, and we take attendance. It is expected that you will schedule vacations, work and other obligations so that you are present on these dates. If you have an extraordinary circumstance that means you will not be able to attend part of Orientation, please email me and let me know.

Schedule of Classes- Available August 5, 2011 on WebAdvisor & How to Determine your Section

Your individual class schedule will be available on Web Advisor on Friday, August 5, 2011. The Class of 2014 will be divided into five sections. To determine which section you are in, log into Web Advisor and look at the five digit number next to any course (except LWR). The last digit indicates your section number: 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5. You will also receive a hard-copy of your individual class schedule and section assignment when you check in at Orientation.

Start Checking Your UC Hastings Email Address- We Expect you to Read it!

UC Hastings' administration will frequently communicate with you via your UC Hastings email account. You will be deemed to have received and read all email sent to your UC Hastings account. The Administration will stop emailing your personal email address and start solely emailing your Hastings email address as of August 17, 2011, the first day of Orientation.
