

Dear Transfer or Visitor Student,

Welcome to UC Hastings! The Student Services Department and the entire college are actively preparing for your arrival.

Orientation Schedule is Now Available Online

Orientation will be held on Wednesday - Thursday August 17-18, 2011. This is when you will learn your way around UC Hastings and sign up for your classes.

Orientation is required, and we take attendance. It is expected that you will schedule vacations, work and other obligations so that you are present on these dates. If you have an extraordinary circumstance that means you will not be able to attend part of Orientation, please email me and let me know.

Start Checking Your UC Hastings Email Address- We Expect You to Read It

UC Hastings administrators will frequently communicate with you via your UC Hastings email account. You will be deemed to have received and read all email sent to your UC Hastings account. The Administration will stop emailing your personal email address and start solely emailing your Hastings email address as of August 17, 2011, the first day of Orientation.

For information from our Information Technology Department on computer services for UC Hastings students, including email and WebAdvisor, please visit:

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions, and I look forward to seeing you on campus in a few weeks.

Thank you,

Rupa
